ITEM 1 - Overview

The Company was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) on February 27, 2007. In April 2010, the Company changed its name to Vanadium One Energy Corp. The Company is currently trading on the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) under the symbol “VDR” and the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the symbol “9VR1”. The Company is a reporting issuer in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Ontario.

Vanadium One Energy Corp. is currently engaged in exploration and evaluation of its 100%-owned Clinton Manganese Project near Clinton, British Columbia as well as its recently acquired Mont Sorcier Property in the Province of Quebec. There has been no determination whether the Company's exploration and evaluation assets contain mineral reserves and resources that are economically viable.

Property Descriptions

➤ Clinton Manganese Project

On March 8, 2016, the Company announced that it has entered into an agreement to acquire a 100% interest in the Clinton Manganese Project near Clinton, British Columbia. The 3 claims comprising the acquired property are located approximately 3 to 6 kilometers to the south of the village of Clinton, British Columbia and cover 954.53 hectares of land. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company agreed to issue up to 12 million shares of its share capital and pay $20,000 in order to acquire a 100% interest in the property. The Company received approval for this acquisition from the TSX Venture Exchange and approval for issuing 1,400,000 shares as a finder's fee. On July 27, 2016 the Company issued the 12 million shares to the vendors of the property, along with the 1,400,000 finder's fee shares. On August 8, 2016 the payment of $20,000 was made. In addition, one of the vendors retained a 2% net smelter royalty on the project which may be reduced on payment of $1million per 1%.

➤ Ivanhoe, Ontario Property

The Ivanhoe Property is host to a 9 to 10 channel Geotem EM conductor associated with a strong magnetic high. The anomaly is circular in morphology with an approximate diameter of 250 to 300 meters. The Ivanhoe Lake Cataclastic Zone, a major structural feature in the area borders the western margin of the anomaly. A secondary fault strikes northeast through the approximate anomaly center. According to Ontario Geological Survey (“OGS”) regional mapping, the anomaly may coincide with a leucogabbro intrusive unit that hosts pyrite, pyrrothite and chalcopyrite mineralization. The OGS reported no surface grab assay values.

On September 9, 2014, the Company announced that it has acquired additional mining claims contiguous to its Ivanhoe Lake Property, located in the Borden Lake Gold District, Ontario Canada. The additional claims are located directly adjacent to the western boundary of the Company's original Ivanhoe Lake claims and double the size of the footprint in the region. The claims were acquired from the vendors of the Company's original claims pursuant to an amendment to the existing agreement. Vanadium One paid $6,000 to the vendors and amended the existing agreement to include the additional claims under the same terms and conditions as in the original agreement.

As at February 28, 2017 the Company has written down to a nominal amount as they are not in the Company's plans.

Vanadium One Energy Corp.
Management's Discussion & Analysis
(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

➤ San Miguel, Mexico Property

In August 2011, The Company expanded its Mexican area play in the southern Sierra Madre del Sur precious metal belt by acquiring a 100% interest in the San Miguel property from Santa Claws Minas S.A., de C.V.

The San Miguel property is approximately 2,000 hectares in size and is surrounded by the 14,722 hectare La Diana property. No modern systematic exploration work has ever been conducted at the San Miguel property. As is the case for the La Diana property, ASTER remote sensing imagery indicates that zones of potential hydroxyl bedrock alteration favorable for epithermal polymetallic mineralization are found throughout the San Miguel property.

At year ended February 28, 2015, the Company did not to pay the semi-annual property tax levy to the Mexican authorities. Without an agreement to acquire both the San Javier and La Diana property concessions, continued investment in San Miguel is without merit. Therefore, the Company has written down its investment in the San Miguel property to a nominal amount in prior years.

➤ Mont Sorcier, Vanadium Project, Chibougamau, Quebec

In November 2016, the Company agreed to acquire a 100% interest in the Mont Sorcier Vanadium property ("Sorcier Property") located near Chibougamau in Quebec, Canada. The agreement called for a payment of $150,000 and the issuance of 2,750,000 post-consolidation common shares at $0.175. The Company has agreed to undertake a minimum of $1 million in exploration expenditures on the property within in the first 24 months following signature of the agreement. Chibougamau Independent Mines will retain a 1% Gross Metal Royalty ("GMR") on all mineral production from the property. In order to facilitate the transaction, Globex Mining Enterprises Inc. which held a 3% GMR on a number of claims, has reduced its royalty to 1% GMR but it has been extended to the recently enlarged claim group. In addition, 300,000 post-consolidation common shares at $0.175 were issued as a finders' fee.

In November 2016, the Company reported that Claude P. Larouche, P.Eng. (OIQ) has completed an initial National Instrument 43-101 Technical Report on the Mont Sorcier Vanadium, Iron, Titanium Project in Roy Township, Quebec. The Technical Report includes a detailed review of the exploration work completed to date, interpretations and conclusions, and recommendations for the next phases of work. Vanadium is recognized for its potential in the "green energy" space and is considered a strategic mineral, along with other minerals such as lithium and graphite, in the rapidly growing market for battery storage technology innovation. Highlights of the "Technical Report" completed for Vanadium One Energy Corp. are as follows:

- The mining claims cover superficies of approximately 1,920 hectares (4,800 acres) and are easily accessed all year round
- 3 types of mineralization have already been recognized on the property; the most significant is the magmatic Fe-Ti-V deposits associated with layered zones within the anorthositic gabbro to gabbroic anorthosite of the Lac Dore Complex. An historical resource of 270,000,000 tons grading 27.65% Fe, 1.05% TiO₂ and 0.23% V₂O₅ was previously defined in 1974 as part of a potential open pit mining operation for iron.
- Volcanogenic Massive Sulphide (VMS) mineralization, as suggested by the presence of the Sulphur Converting Occurrence hosted within felsic / intermediate fragmental volcanic rocks, crosses the northern part of the claim block. The most common types of mineralization exploited to date in Chibougamau are copper or copper-gold rich vein systems developed within zones of shearing of different directions and crossing most lithological units have also been identified on the claims.

Vanadium One Energy Corp.
Management's Discussion & Analysis
(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

- A budget has been recommended for two separate and independent phases. The main phase would probe, by core drilling, the Fe-Ti-V deposits in order to verify and possibly upgrade part, or all, of the historical resources into NI 43-101 and CIM Standards resources. A possible secondary phase would focus on the gold and massive sulphide potential of the property.

The complete NI 43-101 Technical Report is available on SEDAR. The technical information contained in this report has been reviewed and approved by Claude P. Larouche, P.Eng. (OIQ), who is a Qualified Person with respect to the Company's Mont Sorcier Vanadium, Iron, and Titanium Project as defined under National Instrument 43-101.

ITEM 9 - Risk Factors

Investment in the Company must be considered highly speculative due to the nature of the Company's business, its formative stage of development, its current financial position and its lack of an earnings record. An investment in any securities of the Company should only be considered by those persons who can afford a total loss of their investment. The following is a summary of the risk factors to be considered:

- Exploration Risks: exploration for minerals is a speculative venture necessarily involving substantial risk.
- Mining Risks: mineral resource exploration and development is a speculative business and involves a high degree of risk.
- Uninsurable Risks: mining operations generally involve a high degree of risk, which it cannot insure or against which it may elect not to insure due to prohibitive costs or otherwise in accordance with standard industry practice.
- Calculation Risks: there is a degree of uncertainty attributable to the calculation of mineral reserves, mineral resources and corresponding grades being dedicated to future production.
- No Assurance to Title or Boundaries: title to the Company's properties may be subject to prior unregistered agreements or transfers or native land claims and title may be affected by undetected defects.
- Competition: the mineral exploration and mining business is competitive in all of its phases.
- Permits and Licenses: the planned operations of the Company, including mineral exploration and development activities and commencement of production on its properties, require permits from various levels of government.
- Governmental Regulation and Policy Risks: failure to comply with applicable laws, regulations and permit requirements may result in enforcement actions thereunder, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed, and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures, installation of additional equipment, or remedial actions.
- Environmental Risks: mineral exploration and development, like many other extractive natural resource industries, is subject to potential risks and liabilities associated with the pollution of the environment and the disposal of waste products.
- Price Volatility of Publicly Traded Securities: in recent years and especially in the recent months, the securities markets in Canada and the United States have experienced a high level of price and volume volatility, and the market price of securities of many companies, particularly those considered to be development stage companies, have experienced wide fluctuations in price which have not necessarily been related to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies.
- Possible Failure to Realize Anticipated Benefits of Future Acquisitions: the Company may complete acquisitions to strengthen its position in the mineral exploration industry and to create the opportunity to realize certain benefits including, among other things, potential cost savings. Achieving the benefits of any future acquisitions depends, in part, on successfully consolidating functions and integrating operations, procedures and personnel in a timely and efficient manner, as well as the Company's ability to realize the anticipated growth opportunities and synergies from combining the acquired businesses and operations with its own.

- Operational Risks: mineral exploration operations are subject to all the risks and hazards typically associated with such operations, including hazards such as fire, explosion and contaminant spills, each of which could result in substantial damage to mining properties, producing facilities, other property and the environment or in personal injury.
- Substantial Capital Requirements; Liquidity: the Company may have to make substantial capital expenditures for the acquisition, exploration, development and production of mineral resources in the future.
- Issuance of Debt: from time to time the Company may enter into transactions to acquire assets or shares of other Companies. These transactions may be financed partially or wholly through debt, which may increase debt levels above industry standards.
- Dilution: the Company's common shares, including incentive stock options, rights, warrants, special warrants, subscription receipts and other securities to purchase, to convert into or to exchange into common shares of the Company, may be created, issued, sold and delivered on such terms and conditions and at such times as the board of the Company may determine.
- Net Asset Value: the Company's net asset value will vary dependent upon a number of factors beyond the control of the Company's management, including commodity prices.
- Reliance on Management: shareholders of the Company will be dependent on the management of the Company in respect of the administration and management of all matters relating to the Company and its properties and operations.
- Conflicts of Interest: certain of the directors and officers of the Company are also directors and officers of other reporting issuers involved in mineral exploration and development, and conflicts of interest may arise between their duties as officers and directors of the Company, as the case may be, and as officers and directors of such other companies.
- No Dividends: to date, the Company has not paid any dividends, and it is not anticipated that the Company will pay any dividends in the near future.
- Changes in Legislation: it is possible that the Canadian federal and provincial government or regulatory authorities could choose to change the Canadian federal income tax laws, royalty regimes, environmental laws or other laws applicable to mineral exploration companies and that any such changes could materially adversely affect the Company and the market value of the Company securities.
- Early Stage Development Risks: the Company has no history of operations and the Company is in the early stage of development and must be considered a start-up.
- Future Financing Requirements: the Company may need additional financing to continue in business and there can be no assurance that such financing will be available or, if available, will be on reasonable terms.
